The screenshot shows the CloudConvert website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for 'cloudconvert', 'Conversion Types', 'Pricing', 'API', 'Blog', 'Sign Up', and 'Login'. Below the navigation bar is a large hero section with a cloud icon containing a red circular arrow and the text 'convert anything to anything'. Underneath the hero section, there are two main steps: '1. select files or drag & drop them on this page!' and '2. convert it'. Step 1 includes a 'Select files' button and a checkbox for 'Notify me when it is finished'. Step 2 includes a checkbox for 'Save file to my' with a 'Dropbox' dropdown and a red 'Start Conversion' button. Below these steps, there are four feature sections: '214 formats supported' (with a document icon), 'file conversion in the cloud' (with a cloud and arrow icon), 'advanced features' (with a wrench icon), and 'powerful API' (with a puzzle piece icon).
